

Decidedly the most difficult of all the trials in Atlanta, Dec. 13, was the woman's trial, "who was arrested on a charge of pocket pickings," against the recent trial of President Roosevelt, who was today acquitted by a jury in the superior court, and walked out of the court room a free woman in every sense of the word.

Her husband, John White, who was convicted as a pickpocket, got off in his trial, as being too old for his wife's age. He is in a less fortunate position, however, as he must either pay a fine of $500 or serve 12 months in the state prison.

White is to go to New York to answer charges of pocket pickings, which he has been accused of committing

in the crowd the day the president was here, was arrested in the evidence, it was believed.

White was under arrest about

1 o'clock that afternoon, and that same

was in possession of his papers,

as late as 2 o'clock, when this evidence came out, according to the chief witness, so that

Mrs. White, known as the wif

of the man identified in the information in the trial, in view of the same connection with the case, she too was brought in.

The woman is young, almost girlish.

She is a decided blonde and dresses stylishly. Her case, as well as that of her husband, aroused considerable interest when it came on for trial.

Boy Killed Playmate.

Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 13.—Roy Walker, 6 years old, was shot and killed by Jesse Barber, a 17-year-old playmate, with a toy pistol containing a Flbert cartridge. The boys were playing and one said to the other: "Let me shoot you," and the reply was, "No, let me shoot you." The pistol was fired and the bullet entered the Walker boy's body over the heart, causing instant death.

Says Law-Giver Peacock.

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 13.—Judge J. S. Bell, in charging the grand jury in the United States trial court here, the landlord and tenant of North Carolina, enacted two years ago, placed personal injuries and damages thereby violative of the federal constitution so that it was the plain duty of the court to enforce the constitution.

Lynchings by Negro Mob.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 13.—Jim Green, a negro, was lynched at Boyle, Miss., by members of his race. Green had assaulted a negro girl aged 8 years. He was captured at Shaw station and returned to the scene of his crime. A posse of negroes took him from his captors and hanged him to the limb of a tree.

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible forms of pain. "I can truly say," writes Harry Olson of Masonville, Ia., "that for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best cure made." Also good for cuts, burns and injuries. 25¢ at all druggists.

Arnold's Arnica Salve is not a question of seasons.

"How should we get married if there were no London season?" asked the defendant.

CHURCH

"None of you would get married if you were bricked up in a box car."

"None of you would be rescued," said the American millionaire. "And ten men wouldn't marry the last dead sondaor."
